World of My Dream

Kanitta Kontaweetham

Some of our lifetime may have various problems and matters causing disappointments to the surroundings. These miseries occurred may make our feelings reduced until it lacks of vitality and then we are absorbed with various disappointments and problems until we are not our own and are exhausted of enjoyment. However, when we take time to be with the problems and use our consciousness to observe the things occurred, it makes us know that for the optimism, whether we have any problem occurred in our lives or not, we can elapse beyond it.

When we are looking at our lives and are optimistic, we will have antibody against various problems and disappointments until it becomes a discharge of miseries out of our bodies. It only remains in the happiness obtained from stepping across all miseries until it becomes the perfect happiness and the future life is meaningfully occurred.

My thesis work performance is focused on the presentation of showing attitude towards the guidance which is popularly happy, blissful, joyful and is in the world of dream and imagination by supposing ourselves to have an infatuation into the stage of happiness. For the reason of the existent real life of the human-being, it is probable to always have the stage of miseries and sufferings mixed.

I want to present story of myself just a little people in the new world. In surrealism style with content about my life when release from problem and chagrin become a taste of pleasure. Discharge the peripeteia and those away something soul-destroying my minds become a happiness in my new world.
